

STEPHEN W. KEENE

Steve is general counsel and chief operating officer of the North Carolina Medical Society in Raleigh. The NCMS was organized in 1849 and is the largest physician organization in the state, representing approximately 12,000 physician members from every specialty and practice setting. Steve is also secretary/treasurer for Carolina Complete Health Network, Inc. a subsidiary of the NCMS.

Steve received a bachelor's degree in agricultural economics (1980) and master of business administration (1989) from Georgia Southern College in Statesboro, Georgia; a juris doctor (2000) from North Carolina Central University School of Law in Durham, North Carolina, and a master of laws in health law (2015) from Loyola University School of Law in Chicago, Illinois. Before coming to the Society in 1994, Steve worked in government affairs for the Mayo Clinic Jacksonville and before that worked on medical economics issues for the Florida Medical Association.