

Tracey Flynn Martin

CPA Partner at Bernard Robinson & Company

Tracey has over 35 years of experience as a CPA and is a tax and consulting partner with Bernard Robinson & Company. She applies her knowledge and practical ideas to meet the needs of firm clients from both a business and tax perspective.

Tracey is partner-in-charge of the Winston-Salem office for BRC and leads the Firm's CAS service line (Client Accounting Solutions – a service which focuses on providing outsourced accounting and advisory services to BRC clients). She primarily works with professional service groups and high net worth individuals, including physician practices, law firms, marketing & advertising. She also has experience with nonprofit entities and closely-held businesses.